The school year is coming to a close! What are your summer plans? Do something different and get away from the typical summer grind. Immerse yourself in Mayan culture, share stories with communities affected by international mining companies, and see the sunrise from volcanic peaks!

Join us in Guatemala this summer for hands-on learning, meaningful volunteer experience, and off-the-beaten path adventure. Apply today!

Operation Groundswell is a non-profit organization that runs travel and volunteer experiences around the world. We’re looking for students who are into cultural exchange, fulfilling community service, and off-the-beaten path adventure to join us overseas!
